

JOSEPH KRUPA, Pianist, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Rutgers University and a Master of Music degree (Piano Performance) from the University of Calgary (Alberta, Canada), plus additional studies at the Banff Centre and Westminster Choir College.

Mr. Krupa is a much sought after collaborative pianist for opera companies, choruses and music theater companies in the tri-state area, as well as for solo singers and instrumentalists. He had led concerts and workshops dedicated to the introduction of classical music and opera to high school and elementary school students.

Mr. Krupa has participated in workshops and master classes in Europe, Canada and the western U.S., studying art song with Dalton Baldwin and Martin Katz. His principal teachers have been Willard Schultz, Steven Kemper and Alexander Fiorillo, a former pupil of the legendary Vladimir Horowitz.

A Cherry Hill, NJ resident, Joseph serves as Minister of Music at the First Presbyterian Church in Salem, NJ and teaches private piano students throughout the South Jersey area.