

Paula Johns Biography

Paula is an accomplished vocalist performing music with countless jazz bands, performing the music of Burt Bacharach, and also working with big bands covering music of the 40's & 50's. Her latest performance was with a full orchestra, The New Jersey Capital Philharmonic Orchestra, where she performed a tribute to the great Ella Fitzgerald at the Trenton War Memorial on New Year's Eve 2022.

Paula is uniquely Paula and brings her own distinctive panáche to each song she sings, whatever genre. She enjoys a lyric that tugs at your heartstrings, as well as a lyric that'll make you fall off your seat with laughter.

Paula has quite a history working with the Midiri Brothers Sextet and the Midiri Brothers Big Band and is once again looking forward to performing with them at Salem Community College.

You'll have a great time taking a musical journey with Paula and The Midiri Brothers as they create an atmosphere that will help you feel the story that each song tells and sends you home wanting more. Find out more:
